

Lil' Rob, Just One Of Your Kisses (Un Besito)

Hello...

Nah, Im still recordin, what's happenin'?

Nah Im just...nah

Ey wait a minute, wait a minute

Ey let me say something to you

V1-

I know my life is kinda rough on you

Kinda tough on you

But this is what i do, it's what i did when you met me too

Why would anybody wanna put chains on me?

I've paid my dues to make it and kept it real with you and never faked it

Everybody wants me to be what they want me to be

I won't be happy when i should be

Fuck that, that isn't me

You can't see my visions, how you alter my decisions

How my dissisions keep me from makeing millions

Love makes you do foolish things

Sit alone by the phone

A phone that never rings

And when it rings it's more like

"Where the fuck you at?" I'm tired of this shit

And don't got time for that, i'll call you back.

Why even bother?

All we do is holler, and shout

Yellin about something but don't know just what about

It's kind of fucked up cuz i'm supposed to make you my wife

You love but don't trust me

Don't want a part of this life

It's alright.

Chorus-

I know your mad at me, done had it with me

I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me

Just when you think i don't, i understand

Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand

I know your mad at me, done had it with me

I know it feels like forever,like you'll never be happy with me

But i'm your man, and i understand

Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand.

V2-

See i could only imagine how it feels to be in your shoes

These other girls think your lucky

These other girls have no clue what you go through

But you forgot that i respect you

I'm on way to the top, N' shit i won't forget you

I've been doing this for 13 years, N' how in the fuck can i stop?

I feel like i'm stuck between a hard place and a rock

Your at the pad

You've been mopeing alot

I'm hopeing your not

I'm at the pad smokein alot

Dealing with feelings

So tell me how you feel about mine

I'm talking to you, and shit i'm being real about mine

I know you love me but you hate me

Brake up to make up

And i know it drives you crazy waitin for me to wake up

And i don't know what you tell all your friends

But theres two sides to every story before it all ends

So if you decide to get up when push comes to shuv

I wish you love with no grudge, because i love that much, and thats love.

Chorus-

I know your mad at me, done had it with me
I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me
Just when you think i don't, i understand
Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand
I know your mad at me, done had it with me
I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me
But i'm your man, and i understand
Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand.

V3-

I know your mad at me done had it with me
I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me
Just when you think i don't, i understand
Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand
And you know me, so baby let things be Cause i'ma be who i am, so baby let me be
I'd give you the world if you just let me
Make you the misses with just one of my kisses.

Chorus-

I know your mad at me, done had it with me
I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me
Just when you think i don't, i understand
Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand
I know your mad at me, done had it with me
I know it feels like forever, like you'll never be happy with me
But i'm your man, and i understand
Just one of your kisses would make me feel so grand.
