

Lili Haydn, Sweetness

So Extraordinary
In new territory
It's a love story
Being with you

What dream is this?
What magic twist of fate brought you to me?
Your cherry lips and tenderness
Are everything I need

Sweetness..we are going farther
Than I've ever gone before
Sweetness..I am trying harder
I've never walked through this door before

Nowhere to hid
From your clear eyes
You see the real me
I'll take this ride
Love as my guide
Who knows what this could be?

Sweetness..we are going farther
That I've ever gone before
Sweetness..I am trying harder
I've never walked through this door before

So extraordinary
In new territory
It's a love story
Being with you...
