Lilian Garcia, Lie Low

You didn't care about me So I packed my bags And left you to wonder What you could've done better To make our love stronger We could have lasted forever and longer

But we'll never know how good it could be This isn't how it should be

I couldn't laugh
I couldn't cry
I couldn't waste another day
I couldn't live
I couldn't lie low any longer
I couldn't laugh
I couldn't cry
I couldn't waste another day
I couldn't live
I couldn't lie low any longer
