

Lillian Axe, The Day I Met You

Do you remember when our lives were so complete?

Long, cold Decembers, so bittersweet.

Chorus:

But if I could set aside one day,

That I could hold forever

I would save the day that I met you.

Is it still magic although we've grown worlds apart?

It seems so tragic, so frail the heart.

Chorus:

But if I was blessed with just one wish

To take me through my lonely life

I'd wish to go back to the day I met you

And when you feel you're on your own

We'll just believe you're not alone

And you'll feel the warmth

That we shared years ago

Don't be blue

One painful morning, I stared straight into the sun

It overwhelmed me, I can't undo

Chorus:

So if you can find it in your heart

To be forgiving to a broken man,

We'll go back to the day that I met you

Chorus
