

Linda Eder, When I Look In Your Eyes

When I look in your eyes
I see the wisdom of the world in your eyes I see the sadness of a thousand goodbyes
when I look in your eyes
And it is no surprise to see the softness of the moon in your eyes the gentle sparkle of the stars in the skies
when I look in your eyes
In your eyes
I see the deepness of the sea
I see the deepness of the love the love I feel you feel for me Autumn comes and summer dies I see the passing of the years in your eyes and when we part there'll be no tears, no good-byes
I'll just look into your eyes Those eyes so wise, so warm, so real how I love the world your eyes reveal
