

Lindsey Buckingham, Cast Away Dreams

Holy light visionary sight there's been a change in plans Going away no I cannot stay I hope you'll understand
I won't be home tonight I'll just slip out
of sight
Lay down my visionary eyes dancing on my cast away dreams
Keep yourself out of sight farewell to the wishes that died
Look for me in the morning light dancing
on my cast away dreams

Magic one all our dreams are done I have no faith today Sun will rise in your newborn eyes just let me slip away
I won't be home tonight I'll just slip out
of sight
Lay down my visionary eyes dancing on
my cast away dreams
Keep yourself out of sight farewell to the
wishes that died
Look for me in the morning light dancing
on my cast away dreams

It would do no good to drown in the sea Where no one remembers their name and nothing but nothing is free

Hearts will break with choices we must make so sleep and dream of me
I won't be home tonight I'll just slip out
of sight
Lay down my visionary eyes dancing on
my cast away dreams
Keep yourself out of sight farewell to the
wishes that died
Look for me in the morning light dancing
on my cast away dreams
Look for me in the morning light dancing
on my cast away dreams
