Lindsey Buckingham, Shadow Of The West

Written by Lindsey Buckingham.

Dancing ever changing desert sand I was burned by the touch of her hand The setting of the sun scares me to death I'm a shadow Shadow Shadow of the west Once upon a time I was strong and proud Everything that the law would allow But more and more I feel less and less I'm a shadow Shadow Shadow of the west Memories like shadows scorched in the sand I'm alone, a lonely man The setting of the sun scares me to death I'm a shadow Shadow Shadow of the west
