Lindsey Buckingham, Trouble

(Lindsey Buckingham)

Two, ah-three, ah-four Two, ah-three, ah-four Two, ah-three, ah-four

I really should be saying goodnight I really shouldn't stay anymore It's been so long since I held ya I've forgotten what love is for

I should run On the double I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble

So come to me darlin' and hold me Let your honey keep you warm Been so long since I held ya I've forgotten what love is for

I should run On the double I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble

[Instrumental Interlude]

I should run On the double I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble I think I'm in trouble
