

Linkin Park, Sold My Soul To Yo Mama

You take
You take
Away
Away

Why does it feel like night today, today, day, day, day
Something in here's not right today, today, day, day, day
Why does it feel like night today, today, day, day, day
Paranoia's all I got left, left, left, left

You take
You take
Away
Away

This is so fun, this whole project is like, fun
(Did that sound good?)
That's right
