

Linkin Park, War

One, two, one, two, three, four!

There's no peace / only war,
Victory decides who's wrong or right,
It will not cease / only grow,
You better be prepared to fight!

And it will not apologize,
For laying down your life!

War!

There's no pain / it will spare,
Death has become your only right,
And once you're lost / in your despair,
Forever black, eternal light!

And it will not apologize,
For laying down your life!

War...
Destroyer... (x2)

It needs no side to justify,
Laying down your life!

War...
Destroyer...

War!
