

LION BABE, Where Do We Go

Lying on the bathroom floor
Paint a picture in my mind
All my tears are out the door
Times have changed, but I'll be fine
Unlock all your secrets that matter
Found a new part of me
I don't wanna be a question, no!
I just wanna be the word

Coz a love like mine can't shine just fine
Without you baby, without you baby
But a feeling this strong might prove me wrong
Coz I want you, baby!
So where do we go?
Where do we go from here? - tell me!
Where do we go?
Where do we go from here? - tell me

Waiting into your raising hair
Waiting till you miss my thighs
And look at me like I'm your queen
The only one who's on your side
Don't tell me you want me
Just show me, show me, show me!
I don't wanna be a reason, no!
I just wanna be the One

Coz a love like mine can't shine just fine
Without you baby, without you baby
But a feeling this strong might prove me wrong
Coz I want you, baby!
So where do we go?
Where do we go from here? - tell me!
Where do we go?
Where do we go from here? - tell me

Left to turn you on
