

Liquido, Clicklesley

I don't know
What seers have said
But fate was queer
And times we had
Our big mistake was incomplete
So pure and sweet

We had to break
Our ties in two
I could not say I want you
I do recall what she had said now
What she had said to me now

I said I said I now
It's clicklesley calling
It's clicklesley calling
The sweetest sound in town
The sweetest sound

I don't know
What time will come
I might be late
Though I will run
It is far and still a maze
The wish we chase

Our little world
Too small to breathe
Was like a stone
With us beneath
But don't regret
The time we had
The time we have - we have now

I said I said I now
It's clicklesley calling
It's clicklesley calling
The sweetest sound in town
The sweetest sound

It's not for the cause
It's not for the fiction
It's not for the cause
It's not for the fiction
I can't say what's to say now
No I can't say now
