

Lisa Bund, Born Again

I am born again
My bridges were burned
But now this is my return
I am born again
I am standing here tonight
Coming back into the light
I was gone forever
Forever the taste of hell I had before
It's not coming back no more
Something turns my world around
I am born again - my bridges were burned
But now this is my return
I am born again
I am free as a bird - I am king of the world
Finally I found my soul (again)
I'm born again - I'm born again
The here and now will become the past
I'm trying to make this moment last
Make it last forever
Oh forever since my dream is coming
True a million things I want to do
Something turns my world around
I am born again - my bridges were burned
But now this is my return
I am born again
I am free as a bird - I am king of the world
Finally I found my soul (again)
I'm born again - I'm born again
I finally I found my soul
Free as a bird
King of the world
Free as a bird
King of the world
Something turns my world around
I am born again - my bridges were burned
But now this is my return
I am born again
I am free as a bird - I am king of the world
Finally I found my soul (again)
I'm born again - I'm born again
I am free as a bird - I am king of the world
Finally I found my soul (again)
I'm born again
