

Lisa Chappell, Lullaby

Tell me your story
I want to know what makes you happy what makes you sad
Tell me your story
is it good or is it bad does it have a happy ending will it make me laugh
Tell me your story
the story of your heart the story of tomorrow if you had a brand new start Tell me your dreams the ones that said good-bye the love that conquered all your favourite lullaby
Tell me your story
how you fought and lost the war how your words were left hanging how your soul cried out for more Tell me your story
tell me no lies I'll listen with my heart
I want to be your lullaby.
