

Lisa Lisa, Someone To Love Me For Me

Oh...

End of another long show
And I search for the love of a lifetime
This is the price that you pay
Because stars aren't allowed to get lonely

My heart screams out no,
Just let dreams be your master
Look past my fame I'm in need (of some laughter)

Oh, please let me live in your world
I hope that your eyes can see
That I need someone
To love me for me

So you ask yourself
Oh, this feeling is it true from the heart
Was it my fame and glory
Were there stars in your eyes from the start
And if I want satisfaction
I can have anyone that I see

But why should I settle for less
When I need you to love me for me
Oh, so confused, is this real, do you love me
Give me the feeling you care endlessly, my love

Please let me live in your world {Oh}
I hope that eyes can see {Hope that your eyes can see}
That I need someone {Yeah...}
To love me for me {Mmm...hmm...}, me

Yes, this will be our finest hour
You x me = forever
Let's take this to the highest power
Oh, let's take it, baby, let's take it, baby

Please let me live in your world {Oh...whoa...}
I hope that eyes can see (I hope that your eyes see)
That I need someone {Yeah...}
To love me for me {Tell it to me once more}

That I need someone {Eee....}
To love me (Who's lovin' you, who's lovin' you, baby)
Please let me live in your world

Hey, Paul Anthony
Why don't you say somethin' to all the lovers out there

Well, Bow-Legged Lou
I was just about to ask you to drop the same science

Well, I got a better idea
Hey, Lisa
Why don't you tell it like you feel it

Well, I would like to say to all the lovers of the world
If you are in love with someone, I mean really in love with someone
Make sure that you hold on to that person
Make sure that person loves you for who you are
And not for the materialistic things that surround you

'nough said

For me
That I need someone {Yeah, yeah}
To love me for me
