

Lisa Marie Presley, High Enough

Can you bring me another
Im not there yet
Do I seem to remember
How much till forget
And I cant get high enough, loud enough, nice enough
Can you hear me now
Cause Im not doing fine
Im drowning in my mind today
Oh why does what Ive done
Take so much to disappear
Can I, can I stand up
Help me from this chair
I was the life of the party
Or so you tell me
And I cant get high enough, loud enough, nice enough
Can you hear me now
Cause Im not doing fine
Im drowning in my mind today
Oh why does what Ive done
Take so much to disappear
And I cant get high enough, loud enough, nice enough
Can you hear me now
Cause Im not doing fine
Im drowning in my mind today
Oh why does what Ive done
Take so much to disappear
