

Lisa Marie Presley, You're All I See

Out on the road between nowhere and hell,
I caught a glimpse of my own reflection in you.
But they cant believe I still want you around.
Hung on the line between addiction and this,
I cant believe you said i've hurt you again.
But I cant afford to let you get away,
And I can not take the darkness when you stay.

Your all I see, yeah.
Oh and its definitely my fault.
Your all I see, yeah.
Oh but dont come near at all.

yeah...

How many roads between your world and mine,
How many broken doors and how many fights.
I've changed my furniture to make you go away.
But im still overwhelmed at how much space you take.

Your all I see, darling.
Oh and its definitely my fault.
Your all I see, yeah.
But dont come near me at all.

Oh na na na na na. Oh na na na na na. Oh na na na na na.

Oh and I cant have you right now,
And I cant get it right now.
And I cant have you right now,
And I cant get it right now, now now now now I cant now.

Your all I see, darling.
Oh and its definitely my fault, yeah.
Your all I see, yeah.
Oh but dont come near me at all.

This is, this is definitely my fault. yeah.

Oh na na na na na. Oh na na na na na. Oh na na na na na.

Hung on the line between addiciton and this.
I cant believe that I have hurt you again.
