

LISA MAY, Here With You Now

That's how your mother raised you
But into your father's eyes
He gave you all the love he's got
But then the hope inside you died

Sunday mornings at the church
Down on your knees you pray
Now all your sins and your self-taught ways
Your demons own the night of the day

You keep my fears away and it feels so right
Standing by your side when the world goes wild
Kept my secrets locked 10ft underground
It doesn't even matter I am here with you now

It's a state of bliss where you wanna keep trying
Your mind is full of hopes and your heart just lies
Lies right in your soul and you can not deny
We like where this is going
I am here with you

2x
Shadow starts to fade while we loving so hard
It doesn't even matter
I am here with you now

Here with you now
Here with you now
I am here with you

I'm here with you now
I'm here with you now
Here with you now
