

Lisa Shaw, All in the name of love

So many words, so many songs
Too many hurts, and oh so many wrongs
All in the name of love (x2)
Love is faithful, love is true
How can this be love
Love is crumpled like the sheets on your bed
Desgarded promises, the vows that we said
All in the name of love (x2)
Love is faithful, love is true
How can this be love
All in the name of love (x3)
Love is faithful
Love is true
How can this be love
Love is bleading, innocence marred
Holding out, hands that are scarred
All in the name of love (x3)
Love is faithful
Love is true
How can this be love
