

Lisa Stansfield, I Will Be Waiting

(L. Stansfield/I. Devaney/A. Morris)

Tell me what you need to give

Let me know if I should lead you on

Take time to understand

The magic in you

Don't be frightened of the truth

'Cos the truth can only make you stronger

Have faith in what you do

Have faith in you

Whenever you call I'll be there

Honey I'll beg steal or borrow for you

'Cos baby there's so much to share in love

In love

Chorus:

I will be waiting for you

Waiting for time to heal your wounds

And I will be thinking of you

Knowing love will bring you back to me

'Cos our love is true

If you've been saving up your tears

Well mine's a shoulder you can cry on

It's so easy to believe

Believe in me

Only hurt can heal the pain

All the pain that's swelling up inside you

Gotta face up to the truth

Be true to you

Chorus

Whenever you call I'll be there

Honey I'll beg steal or borrow for you

'Cos baby there's so much to share in love In love, that's why

Chorus
