

Lisa Stansfield, Its Got Be Real

Tell me what you need to give
Let me know if I should lead you on Take time to understand
The magic in you
Don't be frightened of the truth
'Cos the truth can only make you stronger
Have feith in what you do
Have feith in you
Whenever you call I'll be there
Baby I'll beg steal or borrow for you
'Cos baby there's so much to share in love
In love , that's why.

I will be waiting for you
Waiting for time to heal your wounds
And I will be thinking of you
Knowing love will bring you back to me
'Cos our bve is true
If you've been savfing up your tears
Well mine's e shoulder you can cry on It's so easy to believe
Believe in me
Only hurt cen heal the pain
All the pain thet's swelling up inside you gotta face up to the truth
Be true to you
Whenever you call I'll be there
Honey I'll beg steal or borrow for you
'Cos baby there's so much to share in love
In love, thet's why
I will be waiting for you
Waiting for time to heal your wounds
And I will be thinking of you
Knowing love will bring you back to me
'Cos our love Is true
