

Lisa Stansfield, Listen To Your Heart

I can make it better, look around yes, honestly, take a look at yourself If you're not sure of which way to go
Then how can you hope to survive
In this world you make your own way
No one's gonna keep you alive
If you wanna find out what it's all about
You don't know where to start
Start looking inwards towards yourself
Listen in to your heart

Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart

When life becomes too much to take
Then how can you hope to resist
The tempting hand of greed and guilt
Answers you at the top of the list
If you take the time to reassure yourself
That really it's just a start
Stop, take one step back, look at yourself
Listen to your heart

Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart

Just be sure of yourself
Even if you find yourself in a world of trouble
And you feel that friends will never see you through Look down deep inside you, take out all your emotions
It's your heart that gonna help you through

Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
Listen listen, ah listen to your heart
