

Lisa Stansfield, Make Sure The Feeling's Right

You can't ask a man why he's looking smart
Ask him why he's feeling good
Make a simple gesture, like to touch his hand
And baby you are on to something good
Mmm, baby you are on to something good

Make sure that the feeling's right
Burning when I hold him tight

Loving is for people with a broken heart
Loving is for people who don't care
Love can make the potion that will keep you apart
Make sure he needs you yeah

People making offers for the peace
That moment is the one you ought to miss
The kisses just to see the other style
And loving will deceive you for a while Loving is deception for a while

Make sure that the feeling's right
Burning when I hold him tight

Loving is for people with a broken heart
Loving is for people who don't care
Love can make the potion that will keep you apart
Make sure he needs you yeah

I'll make sure that the feeling's right
And I'm burning when I hold him tight

Loving is for people with a broken heart
Loving is for people who don't care
Love can make the potion that will keep you apart
Make sure he needs you yeah

Loving is for people with a broken heart
Loving is for people who don't care
Love can make the potion that will keep you apart
Make sure he needs you yeah

Make sure that the feeling's right
Make sure he needs you yeah
Make sure he needs you yeah
Make sure he needs you yeah
Make sure he needs you yeah
Make sure he needs you yeah
