

Lisa Stansfield, Set Your Loving Free

(L. Stansfield/I. Devaney/A. Morris)

Baby don't go

You've nearly shown everything you are to me

Darling don't stray stay here with me

Because that's how it ought to be

You've come this far to see who you are

See the love inside yourself

So don't be afraid I'm holding your hand

Just let the love run freely through me

You're so tangled up in love

Searching for your soul, searching for yourself

So tangled up in love

That you can't see anything else

Chorus:

My oh my

Do I have to tell you how to live your life

Ooh baby don't you know, now that your mine

You've got to set your loving free

Chorus

Tell me you see all we can be

That we can be magical

Throw off your pride and show me inside

Show me what your frightened of

You're so tangled up in love

Searching for your soul, searching for yourself

So tangled up in love

That you can't see anything else

Chorus

You're so tangled up in love

Searching for your soul, searching for yourself

So tangled up in love

That you can't see anything else

Chorus
