

Lisa Stansfield, The Love In Me

(L. Stansfield/I. Devaney/A. Morris)

I ain't puttin' you in no cage

I ain't puttin' no chains on you, baby

The love in Me

If you believe in love then you'll believe in me

'Cause I'm everythin' you want

And baby, I'm everything you need

I know where you're coming from

'Cause I'm a woman

I'm freer than the breeze

And fresher than the air that you breath

Ohhh, my heart is breakin'

Ohhh, when it's tired and achin' for love

I'll give you more

Chorus:

It's the love in me, has to be, all that you need

A love that less, can't possess

All that I have to set you free

The love in me

You'll always be free

To come and go as you please

'Cause baby I know you'll

Always want to come back to me

Behind every good man there lies a woman

And incidentally, I'm the woman you need

Ohhh, my heart is breakin'

Ohhh, when it's tired and achin' for love

I'll give you more

Chorus x 2

I ain't puttin' no chains on you, baby

I ain't puttin' no chains on you

Ohhh, when your heart is breakin'

Ohhh, when it's tired and achin' for love

I'll give you more

Darlin'

Chorus
