Lita Ford, Aces And Eights

We only take what we need

In black and white

The city bleeds

Love cuts you down to the bone

And walks these streets

With the eyes of a hunter

Bad blood flows from

The father to the son How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law

For sinners and saints

Dead man's hand holds

Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate

Hanging on to nothing

Aces & amp; Eights

We let each other bleed

And watch our bones

Fall in the dust

You can hear the children howl It's all they see

In the hour of the wolf

Bad blood flows from The father to the son

How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law

For sinners and saints

The dead man's hand holds

Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate

Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law

Sinners and saints

Dead man's hand holds

Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate

Hanging on to nothing

Hey, Aces & amp; Eights

Daytime Nighttime

Standing in line

At the border

I wanna lay down the law

I wanna tell 'em how it should be

Bad blood flows from

The father to the son

How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law

Love was the law

For sinners and saints

Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law

For sinners and saints The dead man's hand holds

Aces & amp; Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate

Hanging on to nothing

Aces & amp; Eights

Hey, Aces & amp; Eights

Hey, Aces & amp; Eights

Uw, yeah, Aces & amp; Eights

Aces & amp; Eights
