

Lita Ford, Aces & Eights

We only take what we need
In black and white
The city bleeds

Love cuts you down to the bone
And walks these streets
With the eyes of a hunter

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law
For sinners and saints
Dead man's hand holds
Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate
Hanging on to nothing
Aces & Eights

We let each other bleed
And watch our bones
Fall in the dust
You can hear the children howl
It's all they see
In the hour of the wolf

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
How red the river runs, yeah

Love was the law
For sinners and saints
The dead man's hand holds
Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate
Hanging on to nothing

Love was the law
Sinners and saints
Dead man's hand holds
Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate
Hanging on to nothing
Hey, Aces & Eights

Daytime
Nighttime
Standing in line
At the border
I wanna lay down the law
I wanna tell 'em how it should be

Bad blood flows from
The father to the son
Love was the law

Love was the law

Aces & Eights

We're bound by wire, blood and fate

Love was the law

We're bound by wire, blood and fate
Aces & Eights

Hey, Aces & Eights
Hey, Aces & Eights
Uw, yeah, Aces & Eights
