

Little Birdy, Come On Little Heartbreaker

Everybody knows the reason why
I choke and choke I dont know
Why
But its so hard on you
To go and throw
Somebodys heart in the washer
But you are my lover for tonight

Baby I know things could be easier if we tried
Oh the tangles are too much to explain to the world

Now that everythings set in stone (o so I lie)
You push me so far that I cannot move

But its so hard on you
To go and find
Someone who is honest and right
But you are my lover
For tonight
Baby I know things could be easier if we tried,
Oh the tangles are to much to explain to the world

Come one Little Heartbreaker
Loosen up for a lifetime baby
You and me
Are heading straight upstream
