

Little Mix, Turn Your Face

[Jesy]

In my memory, all the small things
Like daggers in my mind
In my memory, while my head bleeds
The words I'll never find
And that I always meant to say to you I can't.

[Jade]

Cause you turned your face
And now I can't feel you anymore
Turn your face,
So now I can't see you anymore
Walk away, until you're not standing at my door
Turn your face, walk away and stay
Turn your face
Ohh, oh

[Perrie]

In my memory
I was hurting long before we met
Oh, in my memory
They're still burning, fingerprints you left
And I always meant to say to you I can't

So just turn your face, until I can't see you anymore
Turn your face until I can't see you anymore
Walk away, until you're not standing at my door
Turn your face, walk away and stay
Turn your face

[Leigh-Anne]

Each time I take you back
You bring one thousand cracks
And I accept them like a fool ooh

[Perrie]

So now what's your excuse?
What do we have to lose, since I'm already losing you

[Leigh-Anne]

Ref.: So hard to face that I can't feel you anymore
Hard to face that I can't see you anymore

[Perrie]

So walk away until you're not standing at my door
Turn Your face, walk away and stay
Turn your face
Turn your face and stay
Turn Your face
