

Little River Band, If I Get Lucky

When I fall down hard, I don't break
I just bruise
I get the call to give or take
If I choose

I keep runnin' night and day
If I can't find the truth
Anyway it's all the same
Till someone cuts me loose

But if I get lucky
And if I get lucky
Maybe I can lose these lonesome blues
Yeah, doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky
Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky, babe

I build a wall to hide behind
Keepin' low
I need a hole to crawl inside
When things get slow

I believe the danger line
Begins with you alone
Someday baby you might find
That it's me who's coming home

But if I get lucky
Maybe life will be a cruise
And if I get lucky
Maybe I can lose these lonesome blues
Yeah, doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky, babe
Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky

Well, it's easy to say
Some things never change
So why should they change for me?

Though I never tried
It can't be denied
I set all your horses free

But if I get lucky
Maybe life will be a cruise
And if I get lucky
Maybe I can lose these lonesome blues
Yeah, doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky, babe
Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky, babe

Doo, doo, doo, doo, doo
If I get lucky, babe
If I get lucky

Well, it's easy to say
(If I get lucky)
So why should they change for me?
(If I get lucky)

Though I never tried
(If I get lucky)
It can't be denied
I'll set all your horses free
(If I get lucky)

If I get lucky
(If I get lucky, babe)
