

Live, Deeper

I can't even look at this skin tonight
Knowing that our time here is on a while
Hold me in your arms and breathe me through
Like I know that you can only do

In your horizon, no, nothing truly dies
Never tremble with fear
You're just married to the sun
And every second only makes it deeper

Flower pushes through the dune (?) and blooms
It doesn't have the faintest(?) that it is due
A virginity is making loss an open wound

In your horizon, no, nothing truly dies
Never tremble with fear
You're just married to the sun
And every second only makes it deeper
Deeper, deeper, deeper, deeper

I was alone in my room
And all I can hear
And all I can hear
Was the sound of my heart beating away
But I will follow you
Deep into the light
Beyond the death of love
Love

In your horizon, no, you will be together
Faith(?) from this hell
I'll be married to the sun
And every second
Will only make it deeper
Deeper, deeper, deeper, deeper

Deeper, deeper
Deeper, deeper

There is a light
Deeper, light
It's deeper than the difference of light
Deeper, light
There is a light
Deeper, light
It's deeper than (..) light
Deeper, light

And I will follow you
Deeper than the death of love
Deeper than the (..) seen(?) to the light
It's deeper than this flesh and blood
I will follow you
I will follow you
Deeper
