

Lloyd Cole, Weird On Me

Didn't mean to get you mad at me misty
Swear i'd never try to turn your brown eyes blue
It's just that I haven't got a taste for this whisky
Maybe I've been missing someone like you
Maybe I've been tired, maybe I've been lonely
I've been lonely and blue
Maybe I've been missing someone like you
But I was only trying to be your friend
Don't get weird on me babe
I swear I never try to mix things up again
Don't get weird on me babe

Billy says that you're wearing his ring now
He says it took away the sadness from your smile
I guess i'd tried hell if i'd only known how
I guess I learned when you walking down that isle
I guess that i'll be sad babe and i'll be lonely
I'll be lonely and blue
Yes and i'll be missing someone like you
Maybe I've been missing someone like you
But I was only trying to be your friend

Don't get weird on me babe
I swear I never try to mix things up again
Don't get weird on me babe
Was only trying to be your friend
And I was only trying to be your friend

Didn't mean to get you mad at me misty
Swear i'd never try and turn your brown eyes blue
It's just that I haven't got a taste for this whisky
Maybe I've been missing someone like you
Maybe I've been tired, maybe I've been lonely
I've been lonely and blue
Yes and I've been missing someone like you
But I was only trying to be your friend
Don't get weird on me babe
I swear I never try to mix things up again
Don't get weird on me babe
Don't get weird on me babe
Don't get weird on me babe
Don't get weird on me
