

Lobo, It's Time To Face The Music And Dance

(Johnny Slate / Jeff Silbar)

Standing in the shadows
Can sure get lonely
You got no reason to hide
There's something deep inside
Saying let it go

Listen to your heart beat
It's trying to tell you
This is not a fantasy dream
All that you feel is real
It's time to let it flow

It's time to face the music and dance
It's time to let life hear your song
It's time to face the music and dance
You've been on the shelf too long

So slip off your shoes
And let down your hair
Flow with the feeling in the air
It's time to face the music and dance, dance

Whirling and twirling
You sparkle and shine
And light up the night

And once you start moving
You'll find that the music
Fits you just right
It fits you just right
