

Local H, Fritz's Corner

I'm not mad
I'm just bored
And everything I do is only because
There's nothing much else for me to do
And that includes you x2

Messing around with you x3

Piss away potential
Everyday is a waste
And I'm wasted everyday
There's nothing much else for me to do
And that includes you x2

Messing around with you x3

You see me now a little bit clearer
The face I make when I'm looking in the mirror
It gives me away, the things that I say

You think you know where I'm coming from
The words I say when I'm playing dumb
It gives me away x4

One more thing before we go
I've stepped over everyone I know
Everyone I know x2

You see me now a little bit clearer
The face I make when I'm looking in the mirror
It gives me away, the things that i say, it gives me away

You think you know where I'm coming from
The words I say when I'm playing dumb
It gives me away x3
I'm always ashamed

I'm always ashamed,
and that's no way to be x8
