

Logh, Death To My Hometown

i can hardly wait
until i fall asleep tomorrow i'll throw away everything i keep the days i tried to cage had already escaped the moments i tried to save were wasted anyway

death to your concern
and death to my return
and death to my home town

death to your regret
and death to my respect

until i wake again
tomorrow when you wake i'll be on my way
