

Logic, One Day (ft. Ryan Tedder)

and maybe one day I'll be wiser cause maybe one day I'll be further from here put all of my faith in tomorrow dark days keep me up all night only thing I know, it's gonna be – alright you never wonder what it means to make it by any means and finally obtain your dreams on the come up but they run up in a world of many fiends I been at it since a teen get this money, het the cream hard work and sacrifice but not a lot know whot it mean most these rappers ain't got no class like bomb threats and being; the illest

the disease is the one set and It don't matter where you at

if you white
if you black
if you rich
or you poor
we gon' always want more but one thing I can be sure as long as I got the floor I'm gon' use this power to paint a picture of unity yeah, I'm rippin' it up with that energy like there's two of me fuck the lights and the cameras right now it's just you and me

one day
I'll be richer than I was before
one day
I'm gon' have enough money to buy a store
one day
young Sinatra said you know I'm finna do it my way you on the road to success I took the highway

feeling blessed like I'm at mass yeah, I'm comin' for that ass game has been broken so long so it looks like I;m the cast like my section 8 crib finally foud some greener grass so ahead of my time I wasn't born in the past this right here a double-header with Logic and Ryan Tedder oh no!
it can't get no better and you know – you know we do it for the children

I never thought I'd see the day I made a million a couple thousand later feel like everybody feel 'em I ain't mean to boast in the last line but counting moneys always been y favorite past time

Especially with a past like mine drugs in the household never had a hand to hold even when I was homeless in the blistering cold but I made it our and if I can, you can no doubt I know

I'ma do it like I never did
one day
I'ma have the courage to go out and get it
one day
do what I love and support my girl
one day
I'ma shake up the whole world
