Lollipop, Everybody Come On (Wannabe A Pops

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on wanna be a popstar

(Wanna be a popstar, and move your body on)

Everybody's feeling better when the hear the sound sound will be there, sound a rhythming don't you lose around get the space up to the music, that's all go around I swear it's seemed so better when we say

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on

I can see your bady moving, I can feel the hits in everybody something dancing in the street music put's all on fire, but no I feel I swear it's semed so better when we say

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on

Everybody come on and say everybody come on and say isn't best? Oh yeah! (everybody come on) so don't you come alone so don't be shy, just try (wanna be a popstar) everybody hear this gap to say?

Get up get up everybody everybody get up get up everybody get up get up everybody I swear it's semed so better when we say

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on

Wanna be a popstar and move your body on and move your body on and move your body on

(And move your body)
