

Lonely Kings, UFO

Fore me to follow
Your candy covered lies
I choke on patience
Light in the dark gray skies
One far and away
Until we return
Life won't get in front of you
The fire burns the nighttime
The juice that melts your brain
Solidarity among chaos
Stand united in the remains
I can't believe it's true
I can't believe it's you
The compassion isn't easy
When someone needs your empathy
In hope's someday that you will realize
Sometimes it hurts to be a friend.
