

Lonewolf, Bloody Red Rose

It's a rainy day and the sun ain't shine haven't seen you for hours, but I know that you're still mine Wanna be back into your arms Wanna be back to feel your heart Wanna be back to see your eyes Wanna be back to say to you

Refrain: Take this bloody red rose from me it's the key for my heart Take this bloody red rose from me and I swear, I'll never let you part

It's a sunny morning and the clouds are far away you're still by my side, lying in my bed, what a wonderful dawning day Wanna be there, forever in your arms Wanna be there, forever in your heart Wanna be there, forever see your eyes Wanna be there to say to you

Refrain

Give me the promise for tomorrow that I know that you're still mine give me the promise for the future
'cause I can't believe, it feels divine I give you the promise for tomorrow you oughtta know I'll still be yours I give you the promise for our future it seems so bright with this open door

Refrain
