

Lonewolf, Hard Lines

Since I was a little child I was the one I didn't want to be I tried to gain this gentry life but everyone just laughed at me

Bridge: Uhh, my hands are tied I am just a loser, but I think it's alright, 'cause

Refrain: Hard lines help me through my life 'cause they can show me how to fight who is living in the night can not be blinded by the light Hard lines

I don't require anyone who's pity with my insane mind I have to put up with my life and I know that I will stay behind

Bridge / Refrain
