

Lonewolf, My Promise

Running through this neverending night lost in space and time, beyond the light too far away to hear me calling your name but so near to feel the same again and again

Every little whisper of your sighs
'n every day fulfill your same lies there is no one, who understands your dream but maybe you are blind, maybe it is me

Refrain: Can you feel the power that surrounds you ?
This voice in your heart ?
Can you feel the power that is in you ?
This feeling in your heart ?

Just dare a look behind you and you'll see the one who can now save you is me I guide you on this lonesome ride and if you trust in me you'll see the light

You're not alone, if you just only feel the truth in you with the power to heal a long time ago I promised you to take your burdens off from you, so bring them to me
