

Long Since Forgotten, Euclid Crashed

Restating your advice. Considering the cost.
Wander then walk away. Now it's turning around.
Hide in illusions. Wander and walk away.

-=Chorus=-

Can you see it in these eyes?
I'm not going to look back that far now.
Can you see it in these eyes.
I'm not going back there.

It takes time to believe.
Receiving what is seen. A new step is made this time.
Another chance to live. Avoiding past mistakes.
Take this one far away.

-=Chorus=-

Give the others time.
Forfeit prolonging. Get up and start today.
