

Look What I Did, Ultimate Complete Home Fitness

Caret cornered
Milky luster
In a creek bed
Everybody
Wants to find it there

Not the market
Or a coal mine
In a corn field
There it would lay lost

Someone's rock is your perspective
Someone's fear is your diving rod
Water bucket, ripple ocean
Nothing's swim their magnetized course home

That's why we can't have nice things in this house

Last time we left you here
You cracked the good China
Thirteenth century Ming or whatever
Come on

The way you treat it
He should've spun this gold for someone else
Put ketchup all over fast food, asshole
What difference does it make

You're a gem
Some really special shit
Someone else might not appreciate it
Like I do

A porcelain soul fired so smooth
Is rare enough to take precautions
Calm down over there, butterfingers

It's not a napkin
You can't just use her flesh
To wipe your face
Act like you've been here
Or I'll never bring you back

You're a gem
Some really special shit
Someone else might not appreciate it
Like I do

All of the jewels
They will horde them
If you let them

All of the jewels
Left
They will horde them
If you let them

All of the jewels left
They will horde them

All of the jewels
Left
They will horde them
If you let them

Do it

You're a gem
Some really special shit
Like I do
