

Loraine McFarland, Hurting Myself

Verse 1

- I wish that there was just some cure
- For this broken heart
- I seem to ignore
- There's not much more it can handle □
- Before too long
- I try tell myself that your no good
- And that you will never realize
- Somehow you come to remind me
- Come to remind me
- It just takes time

□ Chorus

- Am I hurting myself
- When I let you in
- And go back out again
- Why cant I let go
- Of this forbidden love
- Its like I can't have enough
- In the end
- I hurt myself

□ Verse 2

- If you would only come back and tell me
- How much you care
- And how much you regret
- Of ever trying to find someone else
- You wasted time
- Yeah cause it wasted our time
