

Lordi, Supermonstars (The Anthem Of The Phantoms)

Youve been pushed around until you mumble Beaten to the ground
but you wont crumble

They strike you dumb
They bring you down
They keep you on the losing end

They tell you right is wrong
Your high is low
So give em hell

Kick up a row
Were the Supermonstars
We chant the anthem of the phantoms

Deal out the blows like a Supermonstar
We are humble to none

They cant make you out that makes you bogus

They think they know what were about but they just dont know us
