

Loren Allred, I Hear Your Voice

I hear your voice
When I wake up in the morning
After dreaming of your face
And then sunshine down you light straight to me
It's like you never went away

I hear you voice
And it brings me to my knees
Just when I need it your so close I can feel it
I hear your voice

Ohh

Could have sworn I saw you
Walking towards me yesterday
And that moment time stood still
I fell a whisper saying
It's gonna be ok
It's gonna be ok

I hear you voice
And it brings me to my knees
Just when I need it your so close I can feel it
I hear your voice

When I'm standing by the ocean
Or listen to the radio
When I least expect it
Everywhere I go

I hear you voice
And it brings me to my knees
Just when I need it your so close I can feel it
I hear your voice
