Lorene Drive, 12 Watts Of A Lesson Well Learne

I don't know you I don't know you anymore Your face changes so fast So fast, quicker than ever

So I'll pull my hair out now Which seems like forever The screen fades out to grey So I'll shut it out, shut it off

And I've seen brighter days than this before..

I'm as fine as hair split ten ways (2x)

Well don't you remember November the rain came down Oh so hard, That glorious night.

And I'll rip this shirt right off your back (right off your back)
And you'll know it's time to go
Things won't be so pleasant anymore
The sun will beat down so hard
Indeed it will, yea

Twelve watts of lessons well learned My shirt is now soaked in what I was given to swallow Oh yeah? You know what I'm going through? Sure you do, sure you do..

Yeah, you know what I'm going through? Sure you do, sure you do.. (repeated)

Well don't you remember November the rain came down Oh so hard, That glorious night. (repeated)
