

Lorenzo'S Music, Drinkin' By Myself

No one's around, anymore
Rooms were empty, and suitcases were gone
One had stayed, but still went away
So I'm drinkin' by myself

My left eye still twitches
New towns have all the same shit
Only the ones that live with you seem to give a damn
But I'm drinkin' by myself

Same dirty shirt, can't stand stand smell, from the night before
Your words won't hold water, even though they ought'a
So I'm drinkin' by myself
