

Loretta Lynn, I Can't Hear The Music

He showed me there was more to me
When I thought I had nothing else to give
God knows he wasn't perfect,
Ah but then, again, nobody is
He always told me the truth
No matter how hard it was to hear
When he said "I believe in you"
It was music to my ears
Oh each words like a note
Like a beautiful tune
The kind that inspires
And helps me get through
Ah if I said I can't
He's say you can
He was my toughest critic
Ah, my biggest fan
Now he's gone to a distant shore
And I can't hear the music, anymore
Sometimes late at night
I forget that he's not lyin next to me
He may be out of sight
But out of mine is something he won't ever be
Things that he said to me are still ringing out loud and clear
When he said, "I love you baby" that was music to my ears
Oh each words like a note
Like a beautiful tune
The kind that inspires
And helps me get through
Ah if I said I can't
He's say you can
He was my toughest critic
Ah, my biggest fan
Now he's gone to a distant shore
And I can't hear the music, anymore
I can't hear the music
