

Loretta Lynn, Man Of The House

(Larry Brinkley - Lee McAlpin)

When the man of the house ain't never home
Here I am again tonight all by myself
It's not hard to figure out that you're out with someone else
So this girl's gettin' ready gettin' sad to go wrong
Cause the man of the house ain't never home
When the man of the house ain't never home
That's enough to cause most women to go wrong
When you stagger in tonight and find me gone
It's cause the man of the house ain't never home
[steel - piano]
You didn't think that I would ever slip and fall
Well that's what you get forsaken and don't forget you caused it all
And it gets pretty lonesome when you'll have to sleep alone
When the man of the house ain't never home
When the man of the house...
No the man of the house ain't never home
